A Message from your Community Lay Director

Ohio State broke from traditions when they played Pen State at the horseshoe. In place of scarlet and gray they wore all black, and they asked the fans to wear black. The stadium was 100,000 people wearing black when they usually wear red. Now think about that! You spend a small fortune and several hours to watch Ohio State play football and then dress like you are told to dress, maybe even buy a black hoodie or shirt to wear to one game. Not that is dedication and obedience.

So thinking about how people react to OSU and one football game, I want you to think about how you and I can get people that excited about Emmaus. What can we do to get just a little of that kind of excitement, dedication, and obedience. After all, that's what the Lord wants from us. He wants all of us and that includes what we each bring to the table. Our talents, our excitement, our lives, our dedication, our trust, our tears, our laughter, is what is required.

As each person reading this knows—Emmaus is a great tool in helping all of us get excited and dedicated, let's have a big pep rally and keep the bonfire burning. We all need to do our part and bring a big stick to the fire. We continue to need application to continue walks. At our November and a huge gathering for the December praise gathering. Wear your cross. Jesus is counting on you.

DeColores, Jesus is counting on all of us! 'Pinky' Pendleton

Each board member has many other responsibilities beyond what is described here. ALL BOARD MEMBERS benefit from having helpers. So there are many ways for someone to help – if you have questions, or would like to help out in some way, feel free to contact them. They would love to hear from you! We are all God's hands and feet together; no one person does it alone.

For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness. Romans 12: 4-8 ESV
